The offer

We are really excited to have secured funding from Daisi & Youth Music to offer 2 young people a great opportunity to develop their music leadership skills.

You will work alongside a dynamic team to help design and deliver music-based workshops and activities,. This could be any thing from small groups of first time guitar players to recording a band on our studio or helping organise a stage at local music festivals.

In a nutshell

Develop music activities for young people using our studio and rehearsal rooms

Key responsibilities

Youth Work: to encourage a diverse range of young people to take part in related activities, attend workshops, and potentially try new things - day time, evenings; and weekends when required

Teamwork: You will need to be dedicated to working within a wider team and vision for the music provision in Exmouth

General: The successful person will of course be expected to adhere to all space* policies in regard to Health & Safety, safeguarding, data protection and other policies

Skills and experience - Essential

Literacy and numeracy skills fitting for the post.

Working as part of a team.

Ability to establish and develop meaningful working relationships at all levels

Good ICT and planning skills

Music skills. the ability to play instrument/s, use technology, produce, DJ etc.

Flexibility in use of your time and in organisation of your work

Skills and experience - Bonus

Some experience of working alongside young people in either formal or informal situations
Interest in or existing links into music sector and scene

Unlocking potential with young people and their communities
